Texas Realtors support John Turner for House District 114

AUSTIN – July 9, 2018 – Today, TREPAC, the political arm of the Texas Association of Realtors, announced its support of Democrat John Turner for House District 114.

In making the announcement, TREPAC Chairman David Alan Cox said, “We are proud to support John Turner in his campaign to represent the constituents of HD 114. We have been impressed with his command of the complex issues facing our great state and with his dedication to protecting homeowners across Texas.”

“Looking ahead to the 86th legislative session, many discussions are centered on property tax reform, public school finance, and infrastructure solutions,” said Cox. “With so much at stake for homeowners right now, we believe his commitment to finding fiscally responsible, sustainable solutions will make him a valuable addition to the Texas House.”

Texas Realtors advocate for homeowners and private-property rights by supporting conservative efforts to enhance the lives of Texas property owners, such as support for property tax reform in 2017 and prohibiting sales taxes on real estate in 2015, passing consumer protections against unscrupulous property-tax lenders in 2013, and eliminating most private transfer fees on real estate transactions in 2011.

About the Texas Association of REALTORS® Political Action Committee (TREPAC)

For more than four decades, the Texas Association of REALTORS® Political Action Committee (TREPAC) has provided a powerful voice to protect the needs of real estate professionals and property owners. TREPAC is a voluntary, nonprofit organization. The voluntary investments received go toward supporting issues that directly affect Texas property owners. TREPAC specifically uses these voluntary investments to help elect local, state, and national public officials with a record of preserving private-property rights and keeping homeownership affordable in Texas. As a political action committee, TREPAC complies with all state and federal campaign contribution laws.
