

LOCO AND DISSENT PRESERVATION BOARD

May 24, 2019

Misterspeakermembers,

Let's face it: This session has been boring AF. Who knew? When Dennis (don't worry, he said we can call him that) carried out his palace coup, we were certain this session was going to be an off-the-hook carnival ride of hot mics, floor fights, and maybe an occasional duel. Instead, we got a session-long version of the Game of Thrones finale—too much talking, not enough nudity, and a thoroughly unsatisfactory ending. (No, wait, that was our prom night. Never mind.) Anyway ... it looks like it will be up to us, the members of the Loco and Dissent Committee, to set things right and send out this session in the manner it deserves.

Accordingly, on behalf of my committee, I rise to ask unanimous consent to suspend all necessary and unnecessary rules to take up and consider the following motion:

Mr. Speaker and Members, I request permission for the Loco and Dissent Committee to meet while the House is in session to set a Loco and Dissent Calendar for Sunday, May 26, 2019.

There being no objection, permission to meet is hereby GRANTED. Prepare yourselves accordingly!

Sincerely,

Adrian Wapcaplet
Chair, Loco and Dissent Committee
Executive Director, Loco and Dissent Preservation Board
