

Associated Republicans of Texas

Contact: Aaron De Leon
adeleon@artexas.org
512-495-9522

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Associated Republicans of Texas Announces First Round of 2020 Endorsements

Austin, TX (November 21, 2019) – Today, the Associated Republicans of Texas (ART) released their first round of endorsements for the 2020 election cycle. ART is a nonprofit organization committed to growing the Republican majority in the Texas Legislature and strengthening the future of Republicans in Texas.

“The 8 men and women ART is endorsing today are a diverse group of candidates with unique backgrounds that give Republicans the best opportunity for winning and maintaining seats in 2020,” said ART Political Director, Aaron De Leon. For over 45 years, ART has elected pro-business, fiscally conservative Republicans who have made Texas exceptional. “This is just a sample of the quality Republican candidates ART will be supporting in 2020,” De Leon continued.

The Associated Republicans of Texas endorses the following 8 Texas House candidates in the 2020 election cycle:

- HD 92 – Jim Griffin
- HD 102 – Linda Koop
- HD 114 – Luisa del Rosal
- HD 132 – Angelica Garcia
- HD 135 – Justin Ray

- HD 59 – Rep. J.D. Sheffield
- HD 64 – Rep. Lynn Stucky
- HD 112 – Rep. Angie Chen Button

About Associated Republicans of Texas

ART continues to play a fundamental role in ensuring effective, conservative Republicans are elected to the Texas Legislature. ART’s engagement through direct and in-kind contributions ensure candidates run effective and accountable campaign.

###