Dan Huberty Earns Endorsement from Ted Poe

HOUSTON, TX – Dan Huberty, Texas State Representative, announced his endorsement by Ted Poe, former United States Congressman.

“Dan is a friend, successful businessman and champion for our area,” Ted Poe explained. “Dan authored HB3, historic legislation which provided needed structural changes to public education finance in Texas. As chairman of the House Public Education Committee, he guided these reforms to a rarely obtained unanimous vote in both the Texas House and Senate. He provided funding for teachers and our education system, while providing massive tax relief for citizens. The public education system in Texas is better because of Dan Huberty.

“Our community, parents, teachers, administrators and school kids are better off with Dan Huberty as our advocate in Austin,” Poe concluded. “I wholeheartedly endorse my friend Dan Huberty.”

“I’m pleased to have earned the trust and confidence of a man for whom I and the entire community hold in such high regard,” Huberty said. “Ted Poe has exemplified the true spirit of a public servant. I am honored to have earned his endorsement.”
