

MORGAN MEYER
CHAIR

COMMITTEE ON GENERAL INVESTIGATING
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

NICOLE COLLIER
VICE CHAIR

December 27, 2019

Members of the Texas House of Representatives
State Capitol
Austin, Texas

Dear Members:

The Committee on General Investigating adopted the report of the bipartisan panel of legal experts as the Committee's final report on December 20, 2019. The report was sent to each Member's Capitol e-mail address the same day. If you have not received your copy, please notify the committee's general counsel, Brittney Baldovinos, at Brittney.Baldovinos_hc@house.texas.gov.

Under Section 301.020(d), Government Code, the Committee "shall make reports to members of the legislature that the committee determines are necessary and appropriate." The Committee's adoption and distribution of the report fulfills this statutory duty. As the adopted report has now been distributed, the House may determine what, if any, further action should be taken as it relates to violations of the Texas Constitution, any state law, or the House Rules.

Respectfully,
