TREPAC releases initial primary election slate for state legislative races

AUSTIN – Jan 17, 2022 –The Texas Realtors Political Action Committee (TREPAC), the political arm of Texas Realtors, today released its initial slate of supported candidates for the 2022 Texas legislative primary elections.

TREPAC Chair Nancy Garcia said, “The Texas Legislature always considers issues relevant to real estate consumers and property owners, and we look forward to working with these candidates on behalf of property owners in our state.”

“We urge Texans to vote in the March 1 primary election,” Garcia continued. “With new district lines and several notable retirements, many voters will have unfamiliar names on their ballot. The candidates on this list have been vetted through our locally driven process and are the best choice to represent the interests of private property owners in their districts and across the state.”
