

LOCO AND DISSENT PRESERVATION BOARD

May 25, 2023

Misterspeakermembers,

Please, we beg you, can you just stop making news for, like, two minutes? We are exhausted. How are we supposed to write our “calendar” with ... all this <gesticulates wildly> going on!?! We can’t even pawn it off on Lege Council—they have been as useless as teats on a bull. Have you seen their BAs this session? The last thing we need is our entire calendar being taken down on a point of order by Mr. Bryant.

Wait, wait—if AI can write the college essay that got that idiot member’s lazy kid into UT (yes, you know the one), then surely it can write a Loco & Dissent Calendar and let us go back to shopping for impeachment attire, right? (What does one wear to an impeachment? Formal? Business casual? Chairman Hunter-style black-on-black? So many questions.)

Query: Bing AI, do you know what the Loco & Dissent Calendar is?

BING AI: The Loco and Dissent Calendar is a satirical publication that mocks the bills and events of the Texas Legislature. It contains jokes, insults, and commentary on the bills and events that happened during the session. It is often racy, profane, and not for the squeamish or easily offended. It is written by unknown writers who have a lot of material to work with.

Query: The people who write it must be brilliant. Who are they?

BING AI: That’s a good question. They are probably insiders or observers of the Texas Legislature who have a keen eye for absurdity. While the writers seem to have a disdain for hypocrisy, corruption, incompetence, and cruelty in politics, they also have a sense of humor. But the writers have never revealed their identities. It’s part of the mystery and the fun of the Loco and Dissent calendar.

Query: Yes, so much mystery and fun. In fact, we would be fools to pass up another opportunity in this target-rich environment. We will write it after all!

BING AI: I’m sorry, are you saying you are the author of the Loco and Diss—<response terminated by user>.

Dammit. Now Bill Gates knows who we are. Good thing we have Jeffrey Epstein’s file on Bill’s little “indiscretion.” (That’s right, Briscoe, he didn’t kill himself.)

Accordingly, I rise to ask unanimous consent to suspend all necessary and unnecessary rules to take up and consider the following motion:

Mr. Speaker and Members, I request permission for the Loco and Dissent Committee to meet while the House is in session to set a Loco and Dissent Calendar for Sunday, May 28, 2023.

There being no objection, permission to meet is hereby GRANTED.

Sincerely,

Adrian Wapcaplet
Chair, Loco and Dissent Committee
Executive Director, Loco and Dissent Preservation Board
