Dr. Shape,

I received your response to my letter dated May 4, 2016. I really didn't need for you to repeat from your April 27 letter all of the various affiliations of NAU and your participation in Department of Veterans Affairs' programs. I learned how to read over 60 years ago at Cunningham Elementary in Wichita Falls, Texas! I am disturbed, however, that you did not answer the three very pointed questions that I ask relative to NAU. Perhaps you did not see them? Let me pose them again.

1. Did National American University ever receive potential veteran enrollment "leads" generated by QuinStreet, GIBill.com, or any other entity named in the 2012 U.S. Senate "HELP" Committee report?

2. If you did receive these "leads", what was the contractual relationship between NAU and the firms providing the "leads"?

3. Over what period of time did NAU participate in working with any of these firms?

I will tell you quite frankly, the operations of NAU and other For-Profit Schools, where veterans are concerned is leading TCVO to probably ask the State of Texas to look into greater regulation of your activities to insure that our veterans know exactly what kinds of programs you are offering, the additional cost relative to public institutions and the transferability of courses in those programs to other institutions.

Your prompt attention, and response to these questions is critical to the student veteran members of the Texas Coalition of Veterans Organizations.

Sincerely,

James Cunningham, Chairman
Texas Coalition of Veterans Organizations

Founded in 1994, Texas Coalition of Veterans Organizations (TCVO) represents 35 Veteran Service Organizations within Texas representing over 600,000 veterans. TCVO identifies, prioritizes, and presents as a united front legislative issues of common concern for all VSOs to the Texas Legislature. TCVO is a 501-c-19 Veterans Organization; IRS EIN Tax Exempt number is 74-2715952.
